

Kerley Horse Center Rules

One saddle rack and bridle rack per horse including other horse supplies underneath saddle rack

The barn aisle and wash rack areas are to be kept free of grooming tools, equipment, hair, dirt, hay, and manure. Please clean up after yourself and your horse.

Any damage done to the barn, stalls by your horse will be repaired at the horse owner/ boarders expense

Please notify management of any necessary repairs, maintenance, problems, or needed supplies so that repairs may be made, or problems remedied as soon as possible

Boarders tack room doors should remain closed and always locked for the safety of your tack and that of other boarders.

No smoking or drug use on property

It is the responsibility of a parent/guardian to always supervise their children when at facility

Always keep horses on a lead when out of stall or pasture

When riding on trails watch out for groundhog holes and other marked and unmarked obstacles

Use of Facilities

We will work with you for early shows or horse illnesses, but please provide the barn manager with advanced or immediate notice if any reason for being on property outside of facility hours

Perimeter/ driveway gates will be open at 6am and closed at 10 pm.

Dogs must be kept on leashes and supervised

Hores Care

Stalled horses must have halter on stall in case of emergency

Don't feed treats to horses that you do not own unless permission is given by owner

Horses are fed twice daily, to request a feed change please put a note on outside of your stall and discuss with barn manager.

If you are riding during feed time, we will leave your horses feed at stall so that you may feed them when you are done.

Horses may only be turned out to their pre-approved paddocks

Arena Etiquette

Arena is only used for riding purposes not a turnout. Free-running and free lunging is not allowed in indoor or outdoor arena.

Always be courteous of other riders

Ask before taking down or putting barrels and poles up.

Conduct

Please make the horse center a fun, friendly place to be. Be nice to others, both people and horses. Treat other management, boarders, families and guests including their horses and property with the same kindness and respect with which you would like to be treated.

All riders must sign a Kerley Horse Center Liability release waiver before mounting any horse or pony on the property.
